Saskatchewan Artistic Swimming MEMBER'S CODE OF CONDUCT

The Weyburn Artistic Swimming Club has adopted Sask Artistic Swimming's. member's code of conduct. Each member and a parent/guardian (if the applicant is a swimmer) must sign the code of conduct to acknowledge receipt of the same and to agree to abide by its terms in order to prevent any misunderstandings.

At all times while at practice, attending a competition or event as a member representing the Weyburn Artistic Swimming Club and/or Sask Artistic Swimming I agree to:

1. Treat all members (coaches, officials, parents, volunteers, athletes) with respect.
2. Not use abusive or threatening language or gestures towards members (coaches, officials, parents, athletes).
3. Not engage in fighting or other physical acts towards members (coaches, officials, parents, athletes).
4. Not damage property at the pool, or the personal property of any member.
5. Not commit any acts of bullying in any form.
6. Not engage in any unsafe behavior, following all general rules of the swimming pool.
7. Follow all rules and regulations as set out by Sask Artistic Swimming. and Canada Artistic Swimming
8. Refrain from un-sportsman-like conduct.

I have read Sask Artistic Swimming Member's Code of Conduct.

For Parents/Guardians: I have reviewed the document with my child. We agree to abide by its terms. Any violation of the code may result in disciplinary action at the coach's discretion, such as, (but not limited to), suspension from practice, removal from future competition, or temporary or permanent dismissal from the team.
